ABOUT

I am a 27-year-old fashion designer, holding a bachelor's degree in fashion design from Shenkar College. I have a strong desire to explore innovative designs and materials, and I am a dedicated and hardworking individual. I possess a curious mindset and a strong passion for learning and growing. My deep love for product design and development drives me to bring my ideas to life from concept to completion. I'm currently seeking an internship in the fashion industry, ready to contribute from my skills and enthusiasm to a creative team.
